LEADERSHIP IN ACTION
GROWING YOUNG LEADERS

Program Overview

Leadership in Action is a hands on, engaging and inspirational program, designed to support young people in developing their leadership styles, skills and potential.

This program is aimed at youth living in Roxby Downs in Years 9 to 12. It requires a commitment of approximately two hours per week over 12 weeks, along with the coordination and running of a community event.

Youth Leaders who complete the course will be recognised for their commitments at a graduation ceremony in June 2021.

Weekly sessions will include structured content, relevant leadership training and access to interesting guest speakers, delivered in a fun and interactive environment.

Leadership in Action provides the opportunity to increase community knowledge and awareness, expand networks and gain valuable skills to support your future leadership endeavours.
